

Cathy Renkas: A Daughter's Promise

I joined Westwinds in 1996 after my mom died of lung cancer. Before she died, she made me promise that I would get back into my music. So, I joined the Red Band under Rod Pauls, playing flute. I stayed with flute until two years ago when I decided to make a change and teach myself how to play euphonium.